Boy what times we've shared, we've through alot together and best of all we've grown closer from all those times. memories of P.S.L. will last forever. you have been a great friend + I really enjoy our relationship. The lord has blessed me with friends like you. I pray the best for you and your future. I know whatever you do it will be very pleasing to the lord. you're a strong Christian and your light shines daily. you have helped me through alot of hard times I know I can depend on you. we had alot of fun times in Government too bad we weren't in the same class. I know if we were we would drive the teacher crazy. I'm really going to miss hearing your voice over the loud speaker. I'll mostly be missing my notes from Christine. Hope you have a wonderful summer. I'm glad to hear your not going off to school. I'll be seeing more of you then. Take care of yourself and the best of wishes comes your way. may all your dreams be fulfilled. And your skies all have rainbows. you're a special friend and I'll always remember the good times. After years of being denied the Valley Championship, Hoover's Varsity water polo team finally captured that unattainable goal. It was done so in a thrilling victory at the Valley finals over Exeter, beating them 11-10. Under the coaching of Dale Hammel and assistant Dave Gleason, the Patriots finished the season at 21-3, tying with Clovis West for first place in NYL. Stand out Grant Hasson was named Most Valuable Player and made all Valley First team. Others who made first team were Tim Gleason, Doug Zaharris, and Tom Gleason (goalie). With such talents as these, no other team could have done it better! Thanks, guys, for all the exciting moments you have given us.

The 1980 girls volley ball team had a great year. They finished the season with a record of 11 and 5. They placed 2nd place in NYL which allowed them to go to valley. The teams success was due to their close friendships. The coach Ms. Rold did a great job supporting the girls in their winning season.

First year boy's coach, Bob Rose, did a great job this year. With his help, the boy's team lead by Dean Walker, Captured the Valley title. Along with Dean, the other valley champs include Chuck Shoshone, David Seamount, Dough Hales, Jerry Grieco, Bill Sterling, and Tony Hamberg. The Valley Championship, along with first place in the City meet, 2nd in the NYL, first in the area, first in the merced Invitational, first in the NYL Invitational and a few other winning performances, made this one of Hoover's outstanding Cross Country teams.

This year's girl's Cross Country team was Hoover's best. With only five girls running, they managed to become the first girls team from Hoover to ever qualify for the Valley meet.

Ain't no stopping them now was just what the other teams in the N.Y.L. were singing about Hoover's 1980-81 Varsity Basketball Team. Although the Pates lost their first two non-league games, the Pates came back by defeating all but one of the N.Y.L. teams. As of this writing, the Pates are 7-1, with one loss to arch-rival Bullard High. The most exciting game of the season was probably the Clovis West game, in which Hoover won to take possession of first place. The Pates were led by seniors: Raymond Owens, Tim Gleason, Darryl Schmidt, Calvin Anderson, Mike Robinson, Greg Sullivan, and Lance Brangham. Hoover also had some very talented juniors led by Kenny Engel, Kyle Duke, Ken Wittwer, Richard Wilson, and Dale Clark. This was Tom Smith's second year as Varsity Basketball coach and he deserves a great deal of credit for the success of this years team. Congratulations to Coach Smith, Raymond, Tim, Darryl, Calvin, Mike, Greg, Lance, Kenny, Kyle, Richard, Ken, and Dale, for a job well done!!

The 1981 Girl's Softball team had a fantastic season as usual. After winning NYL in 1980 they were at the top of the league this year as expected. Coach Lindberg did a great job in her first year coaching the team.

The standouts of the team were pitcher Kari Sanborn, catcher Joannie Elerick, 1st base Karin Johnson, and shortstop Mendy Hall. The key word of the team was cooperation and team work which led to their successful season.

The 1980-81 Flag Girls had a good year considering, at the beginning of the year they had no flags. Throughout the year, they all became close friends. Karen Williams and Tracie Ramey did a great job as head flag girls. They came in 2nd place in Madera, 4th in Cloves and 1st in the Veteran's Day Parade. They had to work hard, but it paid off in the end. Left- "the end"

Drummers and Minutemen

Maureen Duffy, (Instructor) Dave Glyde, Richard Hamberg, Steve Hock, Jim Johnson (section leader) Steve Kruse, Lou Leonardo, Todd Memmott, Bill Murphy, John Paulsen, Robbie Rocholz, Danny Zingarelli

This year the Percussion Section set out to be #1, under the direction of instructor Dave Glyde and section leader Steve Kruse. They did their usual drum solos and painted their faces, but after many months of hard work they had a solo written by Dave Glyde called "Black Market". They went to Lodi for Drum Competition and walked away with 1st place. That's the first time any Hoover drum section has done that before. They'll be continuing their great performances this spring at Tracy and Stockton competition with a new drum solo called "Lezghinka" by the Santa Clara Van Guards Drum Corp.

WE JUST WANT

TO CELEBRATE!

The 1980 Hoover High Homecoming is an event that will be remembered for years to come. Our noontime activities, including an Urban Cowboy Contest, a rootbeer chug, and a tug-o-war were just the beginning of homecoming excitement this year. The 1st annual Homecoming Barbeque and Carnival took place the night before Homecoming. Patriot spirit was flying high that night. The big events of the night were the dunk tank, the ever-popular pie auction and the crowning of Hoover's own Super Pate, Mr. Tom Fries.

The Patriots were at their best in the win against the Roosevelt Roughriders. Our Homecoming Parade featured class floats and the four queen candidates; Sheila Horn, Pam Ourlian, Tiffany Lockett, and Paige Clark, along with the sophomore attendant, Sherri Giragosian, and the junior attendant, Carrie Miller. All the attention was given to these lovely young ladies as they awaited the crowning of the 1980 Homecoming Queen, Miss Pam Ourlian.

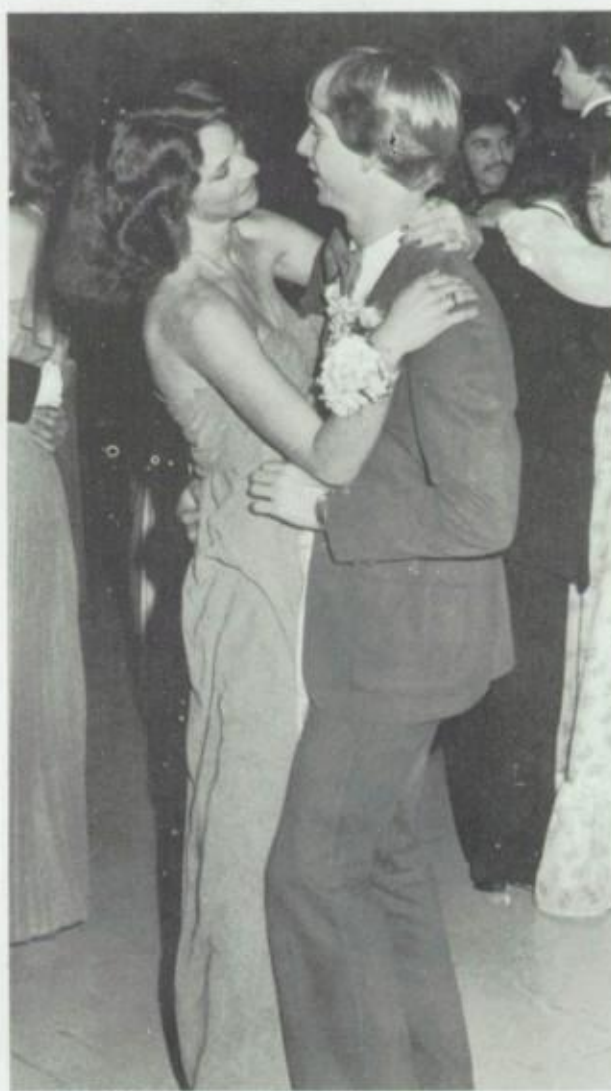

- 1- 1980 Homecoming Queen, Pam Ourlian.
- 2- Queen and Attendants L-R Carrie Miller, Sheila Horn, Sherri Giragosian, and Queen Miss Pam Ourlian.
- 3- Surprise Pam!!
- 4- The Homecoming Court: Sherri Giragosian and Augie Gudio, Carrie Miller and Brent Majors, Sheila Horn and Vince Murphy, Pam Ourlian and Orlando Gomez.

Wonderful time - my face tells all

Winter Starlight was this year's theme for the Patriot Winter Formal. With 175 couples dancing to the music of Brass Ackwards the Senior Class had a successful formal.

Campus Life Members sponsor Powder Puff Football. Thanks from the encouraging help from Valerie, Mark, Jim, Diane, and Warren. Without their help I'm sure at times some would of quit but luckily they didn't. And even more thanks goes to our 10 great Football coaches from the Varsity guys team. Even though at times they'd laugh at some of the things we did and how we did them they were there when we got hurt or needed help with something or if we had a question for them on what or where we were suppose to do or be. Everyone had to work hard but it was really worth it though in the end. We didn't make it to the finals but we had a lot of fun anyways.

FOREIGN GUESTS ON

Lasse Westling, Sweden

I came to this coutry six months ago, to a place where I always have wanted to come to, California! I came to Fresno and found that it can be pretty hot here "out in the boonies." I also came here to experience a totally different school system, but a school system that I really like. The free choices of classes and the fine combination of school and sports, and with such a great spirit that you shall be proud of. I have never played in such a terrific marching band as the Hoover Patriot band before. Hoover High school with all their wonderful students and teachers, some of them I will never forget. My family that has been so kind to me, without them I would have missed a lot of funny, exciting and good experiences.

Lasse Westling

My name is Martha Caprioli. I'm an exchange student from Venezuela, and my program is Youth For Understanding. I'm so happy to be in the U.S.A. Its a great experience because you can learn a new culture and language. I love being at Hoover because I think that it is a great school. I have many nice and crazy friends who help me in the culture. I would like to mention their names. They are Lisa B, Kim M, Ann M, Cristina L, Lisa R, Scott W, Todd M, Anthony D, and more. I will miss our great times when I go home. I would like to suggest that you become an exchange student because it is a fantastic experience.

Love, Martha Caprioli

To live in America is for me a great experience, to live with an American family, and to have many things is really meaningful. Besides that, to attend the school. Hoover is a great high school and I have made many friends since I arrived. I just love the education here, and in my opinion The United States have a high education level. The students have a lot of opportunities to learn many new things. As I said, to be in America ia an unforgettable experience. I have learned many things, especially to depend on myself without needing my real parents. Therefore America, my family and Hoover High will be unforgettable facts in my life.

Marlene Torrez

THE HOOVER CAMPUS

My name is Luc Vandermeulen. I'm 18 years old and a senior here. I'm an exchange student and I'm spending the schoolyear 80-81. I come from Belgium, my town selt is only 70 miles northeast of Brussels, the captial of Belgium. I was undecided about what I should do after high school in Belgium. I had a cousin who spent a year in Boston and he had a wonderful time. So I made the decision to go away for one year. I had to leave my friends and give up a lot of what meant safety and understanding to me. I wanted to take that chance because I knew that I would never have such an opportunity again. In my stay, I never regretted that I took this fantastic chance to be with all of you. I have to thank you, it's more than you'll ever know.

Luc VandeMelen

The first days I didn't feel fine, because I didn't know everybody and I didn't know how to speak English at all. I have great teacher, they taught me a lot of things and English of course. Each teacher has a lot of different systems too. I like my teachers, classmates, and the school is pretty and big.

Sometimes, our teachers and classmates makes us develope and I believe that from them we can achieve our goals.

Pamela L. Soto

It's been a great experience living in a foreign country. I'd like to thank all my wonderful friends at Hoover for making my stay here the best.

The Year in Politics . . .

On November 20th Ronald Reagan was elected our 40th president. In the history of the presidency this was the first time a divorced man had attained the job. Soon after the inauguration he celebrated his 70th birthday, becoming one of the oldest presidents. Time will tell if he keeps his big campaign promise of balancing the Federal budget.

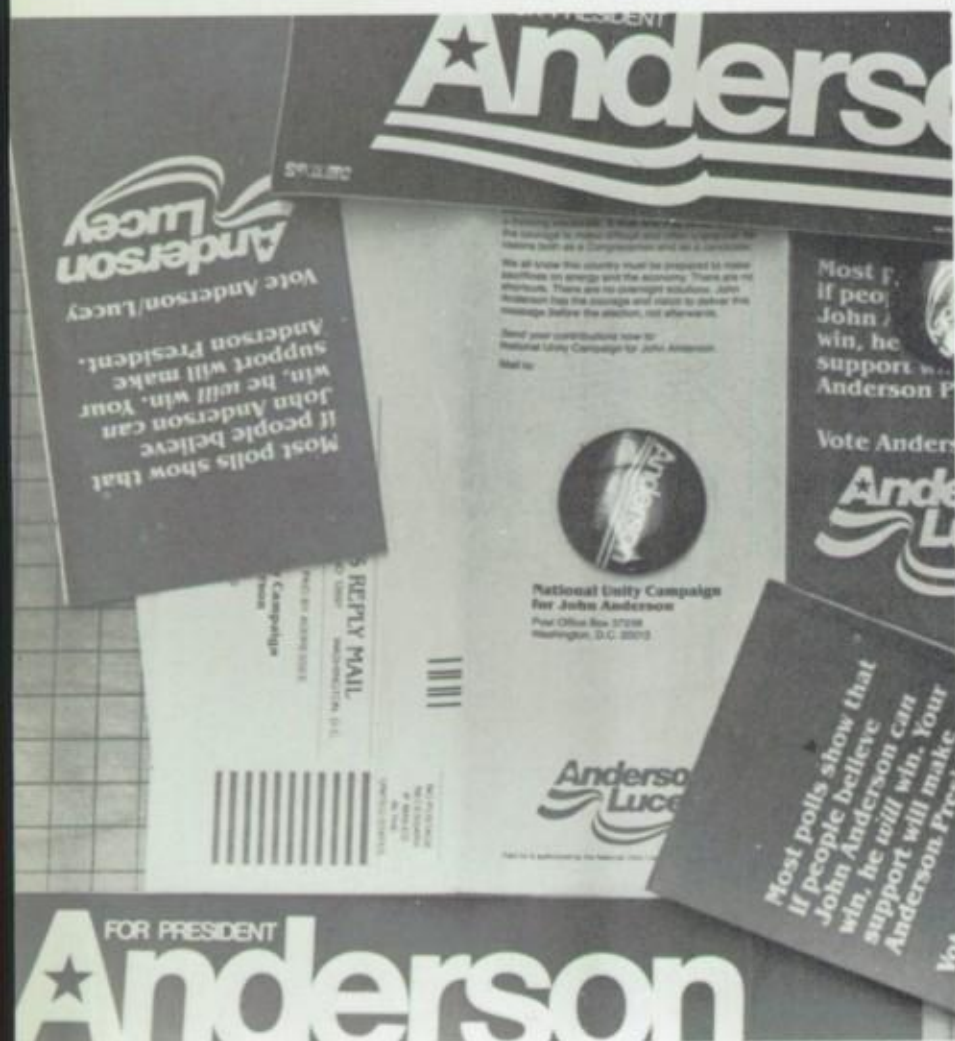

One of the big stories during the election, was the candidacy of John Anderson, running as an independent. On election day he needed 6% of the popular vote to get federal funds to help finance his campaign. He made this goal pulling out over 7% of the vote.

Jimmy Carter ran for a second term, defeating, in the Democratic primary, Senator Ted Kennedy and John Anderson. Most of Carter's campaigning took place from the White House because of the Iranian crisis.

On January 20th, the day of inauguration of President Ronald Reagan, the 52 American Hostages in Iran were released. After more than a year in captivity they were finally able to go home.

Yellow ribbons became the symbol of hope of release for the hostages. This came from Tony Orlando's song Tie A Yellow Ribbon Round The Old Oak Tree. Even in this distressing situation the public kept hoping and showing pride in the country and they were released.

The Year in Movies ...

Comedy movies were generally the box office hits of the season this year. 9 to 5 was a wacky comedy with three secretaries out to get revenge on their boss. And Stir Crazy was a funny prison movie with Gene Wilder and Richard Pryor. Goldie Hawn scored big with a pair of comedies; Private Benjamin (where she was nominated for an Oscar) and It Seems Like Old Times. Caddyshack with Chevy Chase was the hit of the summer, and its background of golfing at a snobbish country club was something new. John Belushi and Dan Ackroyd rebounded back with The Blues Brothers after their flop of 1941. Peter Seller's last movie was released this year, a comedy about Dr. Phu Mancho, the aged chinese doctor.

Anyone that went to the movies regularly this year had a number of scary movies to pick from. Friday the 13th made you never want to go back to summer camp. Prom Nite scared everyone from their senior prom. While The Children made you afraid of the kids next door.

When the Academy Award nominations were announced they weren't really suprising. Raging Bull and The Elephant Man came out on top with 8 nominations, with Ordinary People, Tess, and Fame coming in at a close second with 6 nominations.

Comic heroes made it big this year. Robin Williams scored big with the story of that salty old sailor, Popeye. As for super heroes Flash Gordan was there to conquer all evil. And if Flash didn't do the job Superman I and II were there to clean up crime.

This year had its flops also. The biggest was a 40 million dollar mistake starring Kris Kristofferson called Heaven's Gate. Al Pacino's Cruising was a violent, vile exploitation of the gay culture and was protested by various organizations all over the country. Can't Stop The Music unfortunately wasn't stopped and was a 2 hour bore about disco music with The Village People and Valerie Perrine.

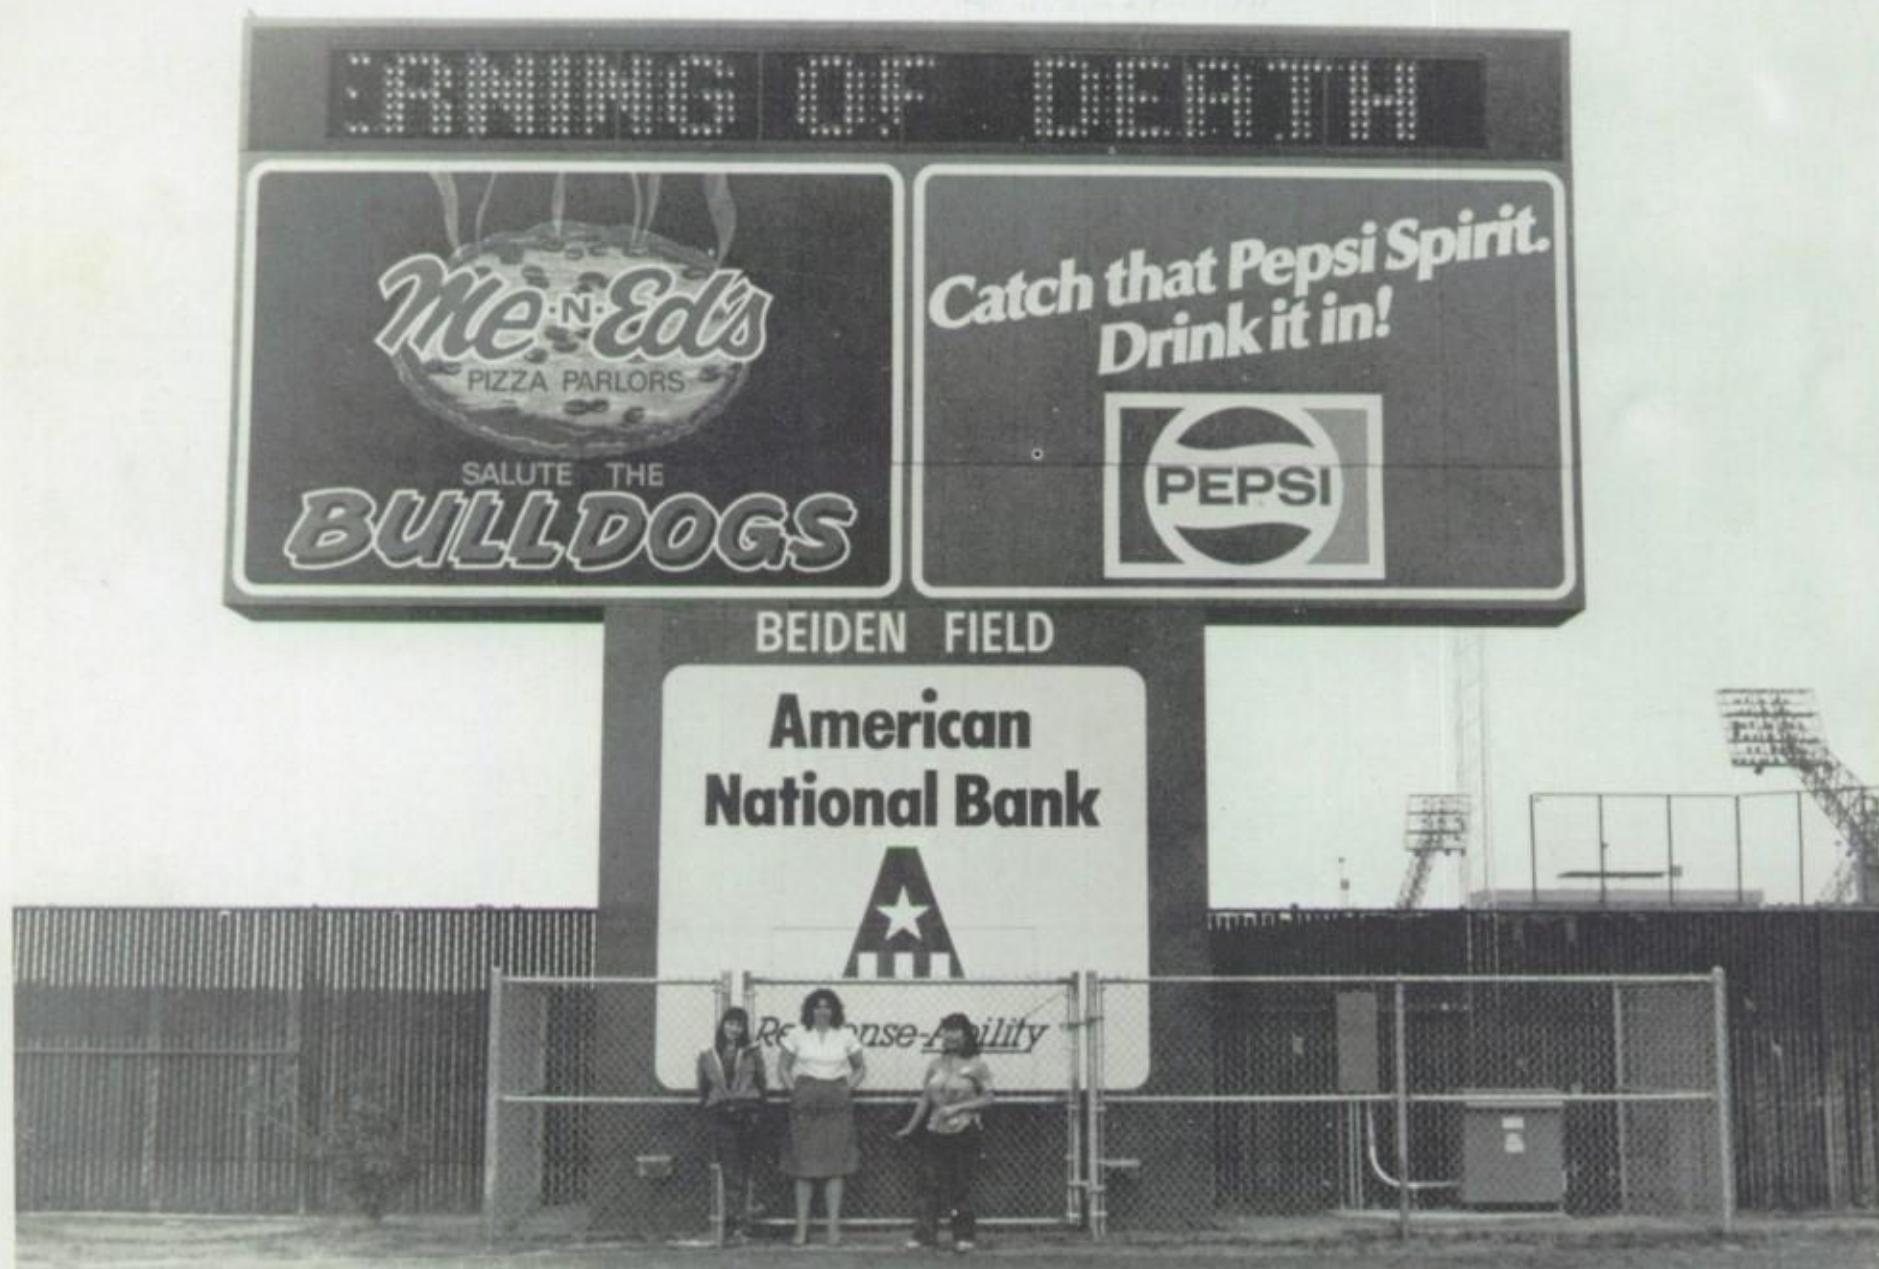

The Year in . . .

This was the year that Fresno got their football stadium. The first game was played Nov. 15, 1980 and naturally the Bulldogs won. Locally the Fresno State Bulldogs had a great year. Nearly, in every sport they came out winners.

For California sports, some shined and some died! In Football the Oakland Raiders crushed the Philadelphia Eagles in the Superbowl. The Raiders stirred up a lot of controversy with their planned move to Los Angeles. They didn't ask the NFL's permission and this brought forth a court battle. Only time will tell if the Raiders become the L.A. Raiders. The L.A. Rams (or are they the Anaheim Rams?) struggled at first but made the playoffs with the help of Hoover graduate Rod Perry.

Sports

The Year in . . .

Fads and fashions come and go with each year. During the 80-81 school year one style worn by both sexes was Levis® 501's worn with VANS® or Nike® tennis shoes. These styles were influenced by New Wave and the "California look".

Another look was sweats or warm-up suits. Those were very popular being sported in the supermarket to (you guessed it) sports.

Some looks that were popular in big cities never really caught on in Fresno, such as camouflage. This is the wearing of khaki, camouflage prints and jungle prints.

Another look was the preppy style. This did catch on a little here in town. Some examples of this are kilts, oxford shirts and penny loafers.

Who shot JR?

J.R. Ewing of the hit television show Dallas (pictured above) kept us all in suspense over the summer, through the actor's strike and into December wondering who shot him.

This year in T.V. brought with it many new shows to try and boost ratings. Aloha Paradise, Hill Street Blues, Ladie's Man, Magnum P.I. and Foul Play were just a few of them. Some old favorites like Dallas, MASH, Three's Company, WKRP in Cincinnati, Love Boat and many more returned this season, but there were some that didn't. After twenty years on television, Walt Disney finished its last season, and Charlie's Angels, unable to survive another angel change also folded at the end of the season.

Besides watching television, video games such as Atari and Intelelevision was popular. Less expensive than Videodiscs, they start at about $150.

The videodisc is the latest of the new uses for the home T.V. It is a record that plays pictures when attached to a television set.

Videodiscs and players have been on sale in the United States since December of 1978, but only recently this year became popular for those who could afford such a luxury. The players range in price from $499 to $775 and the discs are priced from $6 to $30 each.

The Year In . . .

*Yoko my wife said:
Oh boy when your dead
you won't take nothing with you but your soul.*

The past year was a bittersweet one for the Beatle fans and the world of music. To the delight of many, John Lennon and his wife Yoko released their first album in five years. It was titled "Double Fantasy" and was Lennon's statement of renewed hope for the world.

A month after its release John Lennon was struck down in front of his New York home by the bullets of a deranged assassin. Lennon left behind his wife, two sons, and millions of fans.

The contributions Lennon made to society and the world of music have been immeasurable.

Great is the grief of the American people over the loss of several superstars in their own rights this year. The loss of Mae West, John Lennon, Steve Mc Queen, Bill Haley and Alfred Hitchcock, will leave an unfillable gap in our society.

Mae West (whose pictured lower left) whose famous quote, "Come up and see me sometime", will always live on in the memories of those who knew or saw her in her many films.

Steve Mc Queen, a rough and tough western movie film star, passed away, while in a Mexican hospital seeking treatment for cancer.

Bill Haley of Bill Haley and the Comets was one of the fathers of rock and roll in the 1950's. Perhaps his most well-known record was Rock Around the Clock.

Alfred Hitchcock, famous for his thriller movies and acting, will be greatly missed as will all the superstars who made such an impact on our lives.
